Spirit Wear

The second Friday of each month, students may wear SJS spirit wear tops (shirts, sweatshirts, sweaters, jackets, etc.) with uniform bottoms.

Examples of Spirit Wear Tops

8th Grade Class Shirts

8th graders may wear their class t-shirts on Mondays.

Out-of-Uniform Days

Students may wear school-appropriate clothing on specified Out-of-Uniform days; jeans and sweat or athletic pants are acceptable, no leggings or jeggings unless under a dress top.

Birthday Out-of-Uniform Days

When it is a student’s birthday, they may come to school out-of-uniform, as a “gift” from the administration. Students may wear school-appropriate clothing on specified Out-of-Uniform days; jeans and sweat or athletic pants are acceptable, no leggings or jeggings unless under a dress top. If the birthday falls on a weekend, then students can come out-of-uniform on the Friday before. If the birthday falls on a break, including Christmas and Easter, the student may choose a day close to those breaks to come to school out-of-uniform. Summer birthdays will celebrate on their half-birthday.
